Message from Headteacher

Spring Term Week 2

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has certainly been a cold and wintery week, but we have kept warm and cosy in school! The children have still been active, making the most of our halls and indoor spaces for their PE and different activities to use all their energy!

I have been working with some of our Year 1 pupils this week on their phonics and they have impressed me with their positive attitude and approach to learning. It is lovely to see them feeling so proud of themselves when they achieve something new - one of them gave me a big smile and told me "I can just do it now!"

Year 5 enjoyed a great day out to York yesterday, visiting the Jorvik Museum; their teachers were very proud of their lovely behaviour and enthusiasm for learning. It's been a busy week for everyone! Have a lovely weekend,

Jo Hall
