Snapchat Update

Family Centre: New Feature Snapchat launched Family Centre last year, which includes features such as allowing you to see who your child is friends with on Snapchat and who they have been communicating with (you will not be able to see the contents of conversations). Snapchat have now announced their latest feature for Family Centre - Content Controls. Content controls will allow you to limit the type of content your child can watch on Snapchat by filtering out stories. You can find out how to set this new feature up here: https://values.snap.com/en-GB/news/introducing-content-controls-onfamily-center

TikTok Update

Family Pairing: new features This allows you to link your own account to your child's account. TikTok have now added three new features: • Custom daily screen time limits: this option includes choosing different time limits depending on the day of the week as well. • Screen time dashboard: this provides a summary of time spent on the app, the number of times TikTok was opened and a breakdown of total time spent during the day and night. • Mute notifications: this setting will enable you to mute notifications at set times. Accounts aged 13-15 already do not receive push notifications from 9pm and for accounts aged 16-17, notifications are disabled from 10pm. Top Internet Manners

Internetmatters.org have created a list of what they think are the top "Internet Manners" (or netiquette) to help you and your children get to grips with behaviours that can help maintain a safer internet. https://www.internetmatters.org/resources/top-internet-manners/

e-Safety Rule

Always question information you find out on-line. Remember that it can not always be trusted!

Anime TV Anime refers to animations originating from Japan. Due to its cartoon style, your child might inadvertently watch it when it isn't appropriate for their age. Some Anime contains adult themes. It is important to check age ratings so a starting point could be Common Sense Media. They have created a list of some Anime TV with reviews/age ratings:
